Ex-Governor Robinson, Governor St. John, Chief Justice Horton, Auditor Bonebrake, Treasurer Francis, and others, in behalf of the Board of Directors of the State Historical Society, are taking measures to increase the membership of the Society, and have issued a circular for that object. The members of the society are chosen by the Board of Directors. Annual members pay a fee of $2, payable by the first of December of each year. Life members pay $20.00. We have been requested to nominate and send in a list of persons for election as annual members, which we shall shortly do. We shall be glad to receive the names of persons who may desire to become members of the Society.
